

Holmgaard | Management

Executive Search & Headhunting | Interim Management | Executive Outplacement

Presentation of Holmgaard Management

“Focus on success for both client and candidate”

Holmgaard Management is your dedicated partner for Executive Search & Headhunting, Interim Management and Outplacement. Our motto, “Focus on success for both client and candidate,” defines our dedication to creating successful collaborations between companies and talented leaders and directors. We have more than 15 years’ experience of identifying and selecting the perfect match, that creates value for all parties.

Our inclusive and honest process will get you to your goal

There are a lot of players on the field in our business, but we can guarantee that with us you will only meet competent consultants with management experience at an executive level.

We design our service to your needs, and you will be communicating with the same consultant through your entire process, who will gather a great understanding of your organisation, including culture and values to ensure your wishes are met. We have extensive knowledge regarding potentials, and we know how to match such with the correct opportunities.

When we recruit, we prepare thorough analysis before we present the ideal candidates, because we value your time. Furthermore, this ensures a high relevancy of the presented candidates.

We work actively with the UN’s Sustainable Development Goals and diversity, ensuring a nuanced and unbiased approach to potential candidates and opportunities.

We take full responsibility!

An important factor in our work is the candidates’ personality and values. An important aspect in our recruitment process is to understand if the candidate is a good fit for your organisation’s culture and values.

Our values: propriety, honesty & dedication

We have big ambitions for us and our clients. Our fundamental values are the foundation for everything that we do. Technical expertise, trustworthiness and thoroughness are the pillars of our approach.

We decline collaborations that don’t adhere to our values. Collaboration with our clients is essential because it ensures we can present the best suited candidates. This is why we invest time in understanding the companies, board of directors, and the leaders. Partnering with us will ensure that there is focus on success for both client and candidate.

Who is Holmgaard Management?

Holmgaard Management is an agile and dedicated player on the field. With our passionate approach we have helped a variety of clients reach their goal.

Our journey began in 2007, and we have since evolved to become advisory partners, and help both candidates and clients with a broad catalogue of services within Recruiting, Interim Management, Outplacement and Career counselling. We cover every aspect of needs within talent leadership and selection.

We have clients all over Denmark, consisting of innovative start-ups, established owner-managed small and medium sized companies, Family Offices, associations, funds, and the public sector. Working with many different businesses often gives great insight, and a broad understanding of different sectors. Our expertise is not limited to Denmark; we have experience at assisting European businesses in establishing branches in Denmark. These are often carried by the biggest talents that can create results.

Holmgaard |
Management

CALL US
+45 70 26 61 44

We match the leaders and directors of the future to the companies of the future

Our journey started with a passion to deliver services of great quality to our clients. This fundamental value has driven us to create a company known for its professionalism and quality.

You can get further information from:

Holmgaard Management on phone 7026 6144 or www.holmgaardmanagement.dk